SAMPLE

Child I-130 Preparation Packet

A demonstration of how one intake can organize reusable answers, selected forms, document responsibilities, and filing reminders.

Important This is not an official USCIS form and cannot be filed. Every name, date, address, and identification number in this sample is fictional. A real client must review the current official form edition, instructions, fee, filing destination, evidence, and signatures before submitting.

Sample case summary

Case type	U.S. citizen parent petitioning for an unmarried child under age 21
Relationship	Biological child
Applicant location	Outside the United States
Starting form	Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative
Later stage	National Visa Center and DS-260 after USCIS approval and NVC case creation

What the real software does

1. Selects a starting packet from case facts.
2. Reuses names, dates, addresses, and identification details across related forms.
3. Generates a personalized document checklist.
4. Flags missing or conflicting answers.
5. Creates a printable preparation summary and filing reminders.

Sample Intake Answers

The software separates the petitioner from the beneficiary so information is not accidentally reversed.
